

P&C BUNNINGS BBQ

A big thank you to John Seegel, Lisa Marvin, Sally and Annie Brosnan, Tony and Kathy McCartney for running the Bunnings BBQ on Saturday. Everyone put in long shifts but the cool weather helped make it a nice day.

SCHOOL MUSIC TEACHER: MR GREG NOLAN

After some issues with timetabling and availability, we have secured the services of Greg Nolan, a teacher of music who has been among our small school network for many years. Greg comes highly recommended with some highly engaging programs to be run this term and into 2016.

He will deliver some music skills lessons to both classes before lunch and then group guitar lessons at lunch time. Students just need to bring a well maintained guitar to join the group!

In the afternoon, the primary class will receive a little more music appreciation and then some instrument tuition.

POSITIVE BEHAVIOUR FOR LEARNING (PBL)

Mr Mac will be attending a special seminar to help our school examine and improve our learning behaviours here at school. This program works on a systems-based approach to ensure our school environment can be as good as it can be. Kyogle HS is also taking PBL on board for 2016 which can only help with a consistent language between our school and the high school.

MS SAWFORD WITH US ON FRIDAYS THIS TERM!

Ms Sawford has agreed to work here on Fridays this term after we were given 10 days to support students and programs in the school by the dept. She will be conducting 1 on 1 assessments in English and Maths and then developing support programs where needed. She will also be helping some students do Ipad stories which are proving very popular!

NEW SIGNS

We have purchased some new signs to promote the school. You will see our "Enrol in Kinder" sign out the front this term. We also purchased a tear-drop sign for when we attend carnivals and other functions.

Term 4 Week 2

PUBLIC SPEAKERS SHINE AT BARKERS VALE

Our four public speakers, Felicity, Zara Annie and Leo (below) did a great job yesterday at Barkers Vale in the annual COLOURSS Public Speaking Competition. They all received medals and very positive comments from the judges. Their fellow students were enthralled by the topics covered by the speakers and displayed exceptional behaviour as an audience for the day.

The K-2 students had a fun activity day with students from all the other COLOURSS schools.
