Term 3 Week 2

A MESSAGE FROM OUR LIBRARIAN-MS SAWFORD

Welcome back to an exciting “book-filled” term 3. Thank you to all our diligent students who have returned ‘lost’ library books. Well done everyone (especially to parents who help find these ‘lost’ books!) Thank you to the wonderful P&C who have pledged a generous amount of funds to purchase new books for the library! Students have been surveyed and we will purchase a variety of fiction & non-fiction texts according to student preferences.

We will be purchasing Jacki French and Jacqueline Harvey books in preparation for the big excursion to Murwillumbah to listen to their talk on August 4th. We are also purchasing the Book Week Award books in preparation for Book Week in Week 7. Start thinking about your favourite book & character ready to dress up and have some fun!

Famous quote - So please, oh please, we beg, we pray, Go throw your TV set away.

In its place you can install, a lovely book shelf on the wall!

By Roald Dahl

Yours in Reading, Ms Sawford.

INFANT’S ARE HAVING A “P” DAY TOMORROW

Thursday each week the Kinder students focus on a letter from the alphabet. This week we are focusing on the letter “P”. The children requested a “PARTY”. We will be dressing up in clothes that start with “P” - pink, purple, peach, polka dots, pants, pyjamas or ponchos and patty cakes and pikelets, washed down with a delicious punch. The day will be completed with a video - “Penguins from Madagascar”. Please encourage the children to dress up and join in the party.

*Thank You
Louise Petherbridge*
