

INTERSPEAK AT BARKERS VALE

Last Thursday the Primary students travelled to Barkers Vale to support our students who competed in the COLOURSS Public Speaking Competition. The judges, Peter Lanyon and Laila Gray were very impressed with the students who presented. They described all of the speeches as “intelligent, persuasive and empathetic”. Despite the onset of nerves, The Risk students who spoke said they would do it again next year.

Congratulations to Sam Rixon, Georgia Duley, Eli Hausen and Isabella Rixon. Parents will have the opportunity to hear these students speak at the assembly on Wednesday.

ZERO TOLERANCE TO VIOLENCE

The Risk has a zero tolerance to violence policy to all acts of physical aggression. Any student who resorts to physical methods to resolve conflict is immediately removed from the playground for minimum of two days.

END OF TERM ASSEMBLY

Our end of Term Assembly will be on Wednesday 26th September at 2.00pm. Parents friends and community members are welcome to attend. The students have several items prepared to present

Term 3 Week 10

PERFORMING ARTS SPECTACULAR

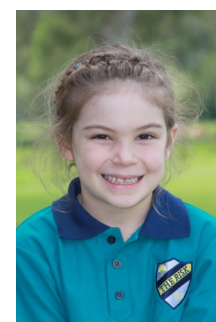

Term 3 is nearly over and the students are looking forward to the holidays after what has been another busy term at The Risk. Our last week will be no exception. CONGRATULATIONS to all the students who performed last night at the Casino Civic Centre. You certainly took to the stage with energy and enthusiasm. The audience were "FIRED UP" by your wonderful performance. A very special thank you to Catrina Dyer for helping us choreograph the dance. Your dedication and humour is appreciated by all of the Staff and students at The Risk.

Teddy Bears Picnic

The students in K-1-2 have invited the Senior students to join them in a Teddy Bears Picnic in the school grounds on Friday at lunchtime. All students must bring a teddy or favourite soft toy to the Picnic. We will have party food to share.

Students in the senior room are asked to bring "Savoury foods that begin with the letter "P".

For example - Party Pies, potato chips, pizza, pretzels.

Students in the K-1-2 are asked to bring sweet foods that start with the letter "P". For example - Piklets, pancakes, peaches, pineapples, pears, patty cakes.

Sharing a picnic together will be a celebration for all the hard work and effort the students have given this term.
